

JULIAN PRICE GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP IN HUMANITIES AND HISTORY Application for Academic Year 2010-2011

The Graduate School is offering several competitive fellowships with accompanying research awards through the generosity of the Julian Price Endowment for the 2010-11 academic year. This support provides an annual stipend (equivalent to the Graduate School minimum stipend established each year), as well as registration, health and recreation fees. In addition, the Graduate School will pay the health insurance premium for recipients who enroll in the Duke student medical insurance plan.. Each recipient will also receive a $5,000 award to be used exclusively to cover expenditures for research. These expenditures can include travel for research purposes or attendance at conferences, and/or purchase of supplies or equipment necessary to the research project.

Departments may nominate no more than two (2) students

Application Requirements:

- Applicants must have completed all degree requirements except the dissertation by April 15, 2010, including prelim;
- Eligible students must be actively engaged in the process of research for their dissertation project. It is not intended to support the writing of an already fully researched dissertation.
