

Checklist for Students Admitted for the Fall Semester

Note to U.S. Military Veterans: If you plan to apply for veterans' education benefits, please follow the instructions in the checklist as well as those listed on the Office of the Registrar's website: <http://registrar.duke.edu/student-records/veterans>

By April 15 or within 15 days of receiving your admission notification, whichever is later

- Print a copy of the decision letter for your records. This is especially important if you are an international student in need of a visa.
- Notify The Graduate School of your decision via your Applicant Self-Service account. <http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/notifying-graduate-school-your-decision>

Duke University is a signatory of the CGS (Council of Graduate Schools) resolution regarding student obligation for accepting financial support prior to April 15. Please read the resolution on the CGS site (PDF): http://cgsnet.org/ckfinder/userfiles/files/CGSResolution_May2016.pdf

Within two weeks of accepting the admission offer

- Have your official transcripts and degree confirmation sent to The Graduate School. Instructions for doing this will be e-mailed to you shortly after your acceptance of the admission offer. (If we received your official transcripts prior to your acceptance of the admission offer, you will not receive the instructional e-mail.) <http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/official-transcripts-and-degree-confirmation>
- Apply for a visa (international students only). Instructions on how to do this will be e-mailed to you within five business days of your acceptance of the admission offer. <http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/apply-visa>
- If you have received an external award (e.g., a scholarship from an organization, employer, or your government), e-mail a copy of the award letter to grad-admissions-center@duke.edu or bring it the graduate admissions office at 2127 Campus Drive, Durham, NC 27708.
- If you are a master's student, complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (United States citizens and permanent residents only). <http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/fafsa>

After your official documents (including visa paperwork, if applicable) have been received by the admissions office

- Activate your NetID and set up your Duke e-mail account. Instructions on how to do this will be e-mailed to you within five business days of our receipt of your official documents. <http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/netid-and-duke-e-mail>
- Contact your department about registering for courses. <http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/registering-classes>

April, May, and June

- Optional: Participate in International House's free online seminar (international students only). More detailed information will be e-mailed to you as the date approaches.
- Submit proof of immunizations and make sure you have fulfilled the Duke student medical insurance requirements.
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/immunization-and-health-requirements>
- If necessary, contact the Student Disability Access Office with any questions you may have about reasonable accommodations.
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/disability-and-special-needs>
- Research transportation and parking options.
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/transportation-and-parking>
- Research housing options.
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/housing>

Late July or Early August

- Register with the Visa Services office (international students only).
<https://visaservices.duke.edu/about/appointments.php>
- Schedule your English placement exam (international students only). This exam is administered by Duke and is separate from the TOEFL or the IELTS test.
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/english-language-placement-exam>
- Get your DukeCard, the official ID card for currently enrolled students.
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/admissions/admitted-students/get-your-dukecard>

August

- Attend the graduate student orientation events.
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/student-life/calendar-events/orientation-week>
- Review the Graduate School's Standards of Conduct, which cover expectations specific to The Graduate School. You are also bound by a set of University-wide policies that apply to all academic communities at Duke.
Standards of Conduct: <http://gradschool.duke.edu/academics/academic-policies-and-forms/standards-conduct>
University-wide policies: <http://policies.duke.edu/>
- Attend Responsible Conduct of Research training (required for all graduate students).
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/professional-development/programs/responsible-conduct-research>
- Learn about graduate student life resources at Duke.
<http://gradschool.duke.edu/student-life>

Still have questions?

Contact The Graduate School:

- Admissions: 919-684-3913, grad-admissions@duke.edu
- Financial Aid: 919-681-3247, grad-finaid@duke.edu
- Graduate Student Affairs: 919-684-2056, grad-gsa@duke.edu
- English for International Students: 919-613-8129, grad-eis@duke.edu

Academic calendar: <https://registrar.duke.edu/academic-calendar-2017-2018>