The Graduate School Distinguished Alumni Award 2023

The Graduate School Distinguished Alumni Award is given annually to a graduate of a Duke University Ph.D. program who has distinguished himself or herself in service to their fields of endeavor, to Duke, and to society in general. Individuals currently employed by Duke are ineligible for the award. The selection is made by the award committee (two members from the Executive Committee of the Graduate Faculty, two additional graduate faculty members, a graduate student, a representative from Alumni Affairs, and the dean of The Graduate School or a designate). Nominations are held and reviewed by the award committee for three consecutive years.
